Theological Themes

Sin, prayer, humility, forgiveness and _____ (your ideas) _____
_____.

Catechism Connection

*Lord's Prayer – “forgive us our sins and deliver us from evil”

*First Commandment – “You shall have no other gods.”

Objectives

To help participants. . .

- * God wants us to humble ourselves.
- * It is not for us to judge others.
- * Being lawful does not make us right with God.
(Micah 6:8).
- * “The sacrifice acceptable to God is a . . .
broken and contrite heart” (Psalm 51:17).

Music

Allow the participants to choose a well-known (secular) tune and write words to the song that retell the parable. This could be done in conjunction with the hand pantomime.
Have them perform it for an audience.

Additional Resources

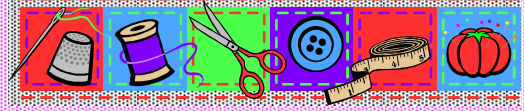

Check with your synod office to see if there are seminary students serving in your area. Invite them to join some activity at your congregation. Learn about various paths of study at the seminaries such as diaconal ministry, ordained ministry, continuing education, etc.

Context

Pharisees saw themselves set apart from the rest, set apart to serve God. As time went by this concept of being set apart became perverted and became set apart from common, and of course, sinful people. They began to see themselves as better as and more holy than the ordinary person. Following this (18: 15-17) Jesus blesses children who are the most humble.

Activity

Hand pantomime behind a screen. Act out the parable with hands ONLY as the characters.

OR

Have the participants rewrite the parable and choose modern day characters to be the Pharisee and tax collector.

??? Discuss /Ask???

- *What was the Pharisees' attitude toward others in this parable?
- *What did the Pharisee do that he felt justified his attitude?
- *What was the tax collector's attitude?
- *Why do you think the Pharisee behaved as he did?
- *Can you identify with either character? Will you share which one and why?
- *Think about -what about me is like the tax collector and the Pharisee?

Sending

Ask yourself if there is someone you feel superior to. Pray that God will help you to see how He values this person. Ask Him to change your heart. Do this each day during the week.

Prayer

Loving God, forgive my righteous pretense and help me to be humble. AMEN.
